

Xiaomi Smart Band 8 Running Clip User Manual

Installation:

1. Press and fit the band body into the Running Clip cavity in the correct direction.
2. Press the lace clip tab on the bottom of the Running Clip to open the spring clip.
3. Insert the lace clip underneath the shoelaces and press the spring clip to secure it.

Note: After installation is complete, check whether the band is facing towards the weather. If not, recorded data may be incorrect.

Note:

We recommend that you run an appropriate number of sections of your shoelaces through the lace clip to secure it. The lace clip may become loose if fastened with too few sections and may break away if fastened with too many sections.

Getting Started:

In the App or on the smart band, switch to the "Running Clip" mode. Follow on-screen prompts on the "Sports" page to start an outdoor running treadmill, power walking or cycling session.

Note:

1. This mode does not record data such as heart rate and blood oxygen.
2. Ensure that you have started a corresponding session in the App otherwise no data will be recorded.

Removal:

1. Press the lace clip tab on the bottom of the Running Clip to open the spring clip. Remove the foot pod from the shoelaces.
2. Gently insert your fingertip or a pry tool underneath the top or bottom of the Running Clip. Hold the recessed areas of the band body and pull it up.
3. Separate the band body from the Running Clip.
